ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE

-1881--

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, begun in 179), is the oldest newspaper in the State, and the only daily published in Northern Virginia. It has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives, too, not in decay, but full of life and vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest judgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but three exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountains of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justides the proprietor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazatta to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

To meet all the demands upon it, the Gazette will be made a WASHINGTON and RICH-MOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEX-ANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of past years has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to issure absolute perfection in these departments.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Common wealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, importable.

The Catt e Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales of cattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandris and neighboring mark ets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the cours try epitomized for its columns, full details bei og given to all stocks, &c, which find investor s in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gaza te offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investmen t than any other which can be made.

For a Mad Dog's Bite.

Some days ago the Sun published a communioning from Mrs. Roeves, of Pompton, N. J. relative to a cure for hydrophobia which ber husband used successfuly for a good many years, and which she has been using since. Mrs. Reeves spoke of ex Aiderman Jacob Ryerson, of Paterson, as one of those who was cured of hydrophobia by this process. Mr. Ryerson is new superintendent of the outdoor relief in Paterson. He says that it is true that he was cured as alleged. When a lad, he and four other boys were bitten by a mad dog. They were sent to Mr. Reeves. One of them failed to follow Mr. Reeves's directions and died of hydrophobia. The others followed the directions and recovered. Several animals bitten by the same dog died.

The remedy is said to be a poison that counteracts the poison of the saliva from the mad dog. It was concected by a man named Penny, many years ago, after long study. He tried the remedy on sormals first, and it is related that he then allowed himself to be bitten by a mad dog to test the remedy, and cured himself before he tried it on any one else. It is pretended that no one ever tried the remedy and followed the directions who was not completely

A copy of the recipe could be obtained on payment of $25 and taking an oath never to reveal it. Some years ago a number of physicians went to get a copy, but they reported that they found it so tainted with superstitious quickery that they would never try it. Nevrtheless, people came from all parts of the concery to be cured, and their faith was boundess. All efforts to obtain the formula have hitherto been faile. There are now in Pater-son three copies of the original recipo, which is now for the first time made public. It reads

A SINGULAR STORY.—The paragraph going the rounds of the papers stating that the old pirate who naie Aeron Burr's dau hter Theodosis "walk the plack" has died again, recalls a story told some 25 years ago by a vecerable gentleman, now deceased, who passed his youth in Southern Barksbier. It was to the eff of that in one of the earlier years of the century a fine looking, middle aged woman came to one of the towns near Stockbridge and purchasid a small cottage, She appeared worn with distrees of some kind, and although seeming to have abundant means, she neither sought nor accepted any society, save that of the poer and unfortunate with whom she mingled as a rule, only to relieve their discress. There was one x xxxption, however, in an unfortunate woman wio had been barayed in her youth. This cu'est she took to her home, where she was her companion and finally her nurse, until the benefactress died, leaving her poor friend what remained of her property. This woman, in order to make good her claim to the gift which was not in a formal bequest, stated in confidence to a magistrate that the giver was no other than Theodosia Burr Allston, and that she had revealed to her under strict injunction of secresy that her melace' oly and singular sec'u ion was due to the fact that she had been compelled to live for two or three years with the pirate captain and that when she was at last released, with some money in her possession she was so overwhelmed with shame that she determined never to let the world in which she once moved know of her existence, but to spend the remainder of her life in deeds of charity. She had selected Stock bridge at first as place of residence, from a family tradition of its seclusion—her grandfather, Rev. Jonathan Edwards, having been an early pastor there but she found intercourse between that town and New York had become altogether too frequent for her purpose, and she retired to a smaller town.—Pitt-field (Mass) Sun.

DOTOMAC FISHERY AND FARM FOR SALE.—The undersigned trustee appointed by the Circuit Court of Baltimore city, will sell at private sale that Shad and Herring Fishery with FARM of 350 ACRES in Charles county, Maryland, situate in Cornwallis's Neck. on the Potomac river, and immediately at the mouth of Mattaweman Creek. The place is known as the bix Chimneys, and is about half a mile from Glym at Steamboat Landing. The farm lies in the angle made by the river and the creek; and the fishery is both on the river and within the mouth of the creek. The farm has convenient buildings for agricultural pur-poses, and is well adapted to all the usual crops. The fishery is well known and very valuable. I will seil the farm and fishery together at private sell, and on easy terms as to the credit payments. Address
